

A piece of heaven came down from above
Left as a gift for you to hold and love
It's a big job, a huge responsibility
To give haven to the soul, this angel to be

Love her
Love her
Love her
For free

She's not you, she's someone else entirely
She'll try you, she'll push you to be all you can be Try not to let your own child see through
She'll make her own way, it's not about you

Love her
Love her
Love her
For free

Let her read, let her try, let her ask the questions why
Let her move, let her grow, feel the magic in her soul
Let her scream, let her cry, let her fear alone at night
Let her leave, let her fly, let her fingers touch the sky

Love her
Love her
Love her
Love her
Love her
Love her
For free
